Freedom Riders Leave But More Are Coming

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A Trailways bus carrying a heavily guarded group of "freedom riders" left the station in downtown Montgomery at 7:10 a.m. today, headed for New Orleans.

National Guardsmen, on duty under law, ringed the station.
Armed civilian police and highway patrolmen also stood guard.

Approximately 75 soldiers, with rifles ready, accompanied the bus with about 100 highway patrolmen as it turned south for the trip through the city.

An hour and 10 minutes after the first bus left, it reached the first large city on its route, Selma, Ala., but skirted the metropolitan area without stopping.
There were no demonstrations.

Shortly before noon, it crossed the Mississippi state line without any reported incidents.

ATLANTA (AP)—A new group of seven "freedom riders," including four white faculty members of Yale and Wesleyan universities, left Atlanta by bus today headed for strife-torn Montgomery, Ala., Mississippi and Louisiana.

The group of three Negro students and the four white educators boarded a bus bound for Montgomery at 12:30 p.m. and said they intended to continue on into New Orleans.

The group boarded the bus at the crowded Greyhound station in downtown Atlanta, along with other passengers, without incident.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—
Two groups of "freedom riders" are expected to arrive in this racially explosive city today to continue a violence-marked bus tour of the South.

"We are still recruiting people," a spokesman said in announcing that Negro students and ministers were coming from Charlotte, N.C., and Nashville, Tenn., to reinforce the group here that was twice the target of angry mobs.

"My office has contacted many groups. They are on the alert—we call them reserves," said Ed King of Atlanta, executive secretary of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.
The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. said white and Negro "freedom riders" are sticking by their plans to leave here by bus for New Orleans, despite Gov. Ross Barnett's warning to "stay out of Mississippi." No departure time was announced.

National Guardsmen, ruling Montgomery under Gov. John Patterson's edict of qualified martial law, patrolled the streets and guarded the Greyhound bus station where the first group of "freedom riders" was beaten unmercifully by rioters Saturday.

James Bevel, a Negro who identified himself as a Nashville student, said he drove here with four other students Tuesday night to join the "freedom riders" and that five Nashville ministers also had left the Tennessee city to join the movement. The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) announced previously that six of its members are here to take part in the "freedom ride."

The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. said both white and Negro riders would attempt to leave here for New Orleans but the only known white "freedom rider" still on hand is Jim Zwerg, recovering in a hospital from the serious beating he received at the hands of the mob.

Two white girls returned to Nashville after Saturday's riot.
Barnett told U.S. Atty. Gen.
Robert Kennedy that Mississippi doesn't want any of the approximately 500 federal marshals here to aid in maintaining the peace in this state.

Quapaws to Get More Money

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP)—The Quapaw Indians will get additional money for land the tribe once owned in Arkansas.

The Indian Claims Commission on May 7, 1954, granted the tribe $1,029,600 for the area south of the Arkansas River. In granting the money the commission upheld the Quapaws' contention that they didn't get enough for the land in 1824 treaty which ceded the area to the government. The Kansas City federal disbursing office now has the check to pay the claim.

Most of the tribe's 1,144 members now live in Missouri, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Paul L. Fickinger, director of the Muskogee office of the Indian Bureau, said each Quapaw will get $900.

Attempts to Amend School Measure Fail

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today turned down by voice vote an attempt by Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., to knock funds for teacher salaries out of the $2.55 billion school aid bill.

This was the first of a series of votes on what Senate leaders expected to be the final day of consideration of amendments to the bill. This is the seventh day of debate.

The Senate met three hours early to expedite the voting. However, final passage of the measure is not expected before Thursday.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana told newsmen he hoped to dispose of all remaining amendments to the holly disputed $2.55-billion public school measure today.

Mansfield called the Senate in three hours early to try to get a quick start at hearing down four or five expected amendments.

He said some lengthy opposition speeches undoubtedly would delay the roll call to pass the bill until Thursday.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., for one, has prepared a 67-page speech lambasting the measure—a major item on President Ken-edy's 1961 program. Thurmond estimated it would take three or four hours to make his point.

The House Education Committee meets again today on its version of the school legislation and may clear it for floor action.

The administration won a big victory in this group Tuesday when supporters of aid for private schools withheld their amendment. Administration forces feared inclusion of such a provision would kill the bill.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., had an amendment pending as the Senate convened this morning. It would strike from the bill all aid for teacher salaries. It was given no chance of adoption.

Administration forces easily quashed two Republican amendments to the bill, including a substitute proposed by Goldwater.

Turned down 62 to 32 was a civil rights amendment sponsored by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y. It would have authorized taxpayers to file federal District Court suits to bar grants to states not complying with the Supreme Court's 1954 school desegregation decision.

Ozan Creek District Organized

A Watershed Protection District has been organized on the South and Middle Forks of Ozan Creek and the group will seek federal assistance in stopping of floods in the area.

Arthur Brooks was named as chairman; Monroe Stuart, vice chairman; Mrs. Bill Stroud, secretary; Sioman Goodlett, treasurer and board members include: Harold Stephens, Dr. G. D.
Royston, Moss Rowe, E. M. Mc-Williams, Gus McCaskill, Jeff Tollett, Mrs. Georgia Haynes, James Walker, Fred McManis, Sam Arnold and George Castle-berry.

Father of Hope Youth Drowns

Funeral services for Luther B.
Prince, 49, who drowned in a stock pond near Carlisle, were held at 2:30 p.m. today. Burial was in Carlisle Cemetery. Survivors include a son, Leon Prince, of Hope.

ILIARY named officers and took in two new members. Left to
secretary; Mrs. Lloyd Guerin, historian; Mrs. Henry Seamans, two new members, Mrs. Jud Martindale and Mrs. John Randolph.

Chemicals Now a Part of the Farm

Agricultural chemicals are becoming more important to Hemp-stead County farmers as demonstrated by Irvin Burke of the DeAnn community.

This is the second year he has used pre-plant chemical weed control in cotton with good success, according to Wade Benefield associate county agent.

The Burke cotton farm is located in the blackland east of Washington. This type of land does not respond to the use of pre-emergence chemicals as well as other types of soil but the accompanying picture shows that it is definitely worthwhile and can keep a man out of serious trouble according to Mr. Burke.

The recommended rate used were based on one pound of Diuron (or Karmex DL) at the broadcast rates. The area treated was a six inch band on either side of the drill, this reduced the amount of chemical required. One gallon of Karmex was sufficient to spray eight acres which cost $2.25 per acre.

If Mr. Burke had not used pre-emergence chemicals this year he would have had to plant approximately one half of his cotton crop over which would have resulted in later maturity and reduced yields.

Kiwanis Holds Regular Meet

"The greatest calling man can have is to be of service to his fellow man," Dean Brown, Southwestern Bell Telephone engineer, told the Kiwanis Club yesterday at its luncheon meeting.

He spoke of kindness, courage, friendship and responsibility that helps man mold his own life as well as those whom he comes in contact.

Guests of the club included Mac King of Little Rock, Reagan Cor-nellius of Beaumont, Texas, Charles Short, Virgil Dennis and Charles Grey of Camden and Harry Risk of Hope.

56 Farms to Join Feed Program

As of May 19, corn and grain sorghum producers of 56 farms in Hempstead County had filed forms indicating their intention to participate in the 1961 feed grain program, Mr. H. B. Gilbert, chairman, County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced today.

The chairman reported that 754 acres of corn and 39 acres of grain sorghum on the "participating" farms have been signed up for diversion to conservation uses. The farms have 1959-60 base acres totaling 1169 acres for corn and 55 acres for grain sorghum. The minimum and maximum diversions for a particular farm are calculated from its 1959-60 base acreage.

Negotiable certificates issued as payments for diversion from corn and grain sorghum production have a total value of $6,294.
These certificates are redeemable either in feed grains or in the cash equivalent. Up to half the total payment to be earned on a farm under the feed grain program may be made in advance if the farmer requests it.

Corn and grain sorghum farmers in the county who are interested in the program but who have not yet filed an "intention to participate" form are urged to get in touch with the County ASC Office without delay or in any event, not later than June 1, the final date for filing agreements
to participate in the 1961 Feed Grain Program. No agreement can be accepted after June 1, 1961.

Pass Privilege Tax

CABOT, Ark. (AP)—Cabot residents voted 274 to 144 in favor of a privilege tax ordinance Tuesday. The ordinance was approved by the city council in March but petitions were circulated to force the matter to a public vote.

Rockefeller to Take Over State Party

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Milyaire Winthrop Rockefeller, a brother of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, is reported in line for election as national representative of the Arkansas Republican party.

Sources here said Wallace Townsend of Little Rock, national committeeman for the state since 1920, is to step down at a meeting this afternoon and that Rockefeller is to succeed him.

Both Rockefeller and Townsend declined to comment.

For Rockefeller to take the post, the reports said, the GOP in Arkansas would have to be converted into a more active political force.
Rockefeller, an Arkansas resident for eight years, was mentioned as a possible candidate against Gov.
Orval E. Faubus last year, but did not run.

He did, however, back a two-party movement aimed at developing a strong second party to compete with the traditionally dominant Democrats. He also backed Republican candidate Henry Britt for governor against Faubus.

Rockefeller, heads the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission, as a Faubus appointee.

The meeting was called originally to elect a successor to the late Mrs. A. C. Remmel of Little Rock as national committeewoman.

Board Decision Remains Unknown

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Whether the Little Rock School Board has decided to begin integration at junior high school level next fall will not be known until Thursday, when the board will vote officially on pupil assignments.

The board met behind closed doors Tuesday to discuss pupil assignments and members later declined to say junior high integration was decided on.

While the board is under a federal court order to speed up integration, junior high desegregation was not specifically ordered.
Eleven Negroes now attend previously all-white senior high schools and Russell L. Matson Jr., school board vice president, said about the same number will be assigned to the schools next year.

JFK Supports Tractor Trade With Castro

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today gave his support to the tractor-for-prisoners exchange with Fidel Castro, but said the government could play no part in it.

The White House issued a statement in which Kennedy urged the public to contribute to funds with which a private committee plans to buy tractors to swap for the liberation of 1,200 men captured in the ill-fated invasion of Cuba last month by anti-Castro exiles.

At the same time, it was disclosed that Kennedy participated in getting together the group which is conducting the drive for money.

This includes Eleanor Roosevelt, Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers, and Dr.
Milton S. Eisenhower, president of Johns Hopkins University.

In his statement Kennedy said:
"The United States government has not been and cannot be a party to these negotiations. But when private citizens seek to help prevent suffering in other lands through voluntary contributions—which is a great American tradition—this government should not interfere with their humanitarian efforts."

Kennedy said that while the government is "putting forward no official policy," assistance to this wholly private effort, "I hope that all citizens will contribute what they can."

"If they were our brothers in a totalitarian prison, every American would want to help," he said.
"I happen to feel deeply that all who fight for freedom—particularly in our hemisphere—are our brothers."

Andrew T. Hatcher, assistant White House press secretary, said he did not know whether the President had contributed personally to the campaign for funds.
He said, however, that "as a private individual it is very likely that he would make a contribution to this fund."

Final Appeals in Sex Murder Trial

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Opposing attorneys made their final arguments today in the murder trial of Leslie Douglas Ashley, formerly of Hot Springs, Ark., and Carolyn Ann Lima, accused of the gun-torch slaying of a Houston real estate dealer.

Both state and defense finished testimony Tuesday in the couple's trial for the slaying of Fred A.
Tones.

Tones, 46, was shot six times, covered with gasoline and set afire in a Houston ditch Feb. 6. The couple was arrested later in New York.

Ashley, a 23-year-old female impersonator, and Miss Lima, 18, testified they shot Tones in self-defense during a struggle at a sex party in his office.

Bear Tracks Are Found at Conway

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Bear tracks and bits of fur found near the Palarm community may belong to a bear which wandered into North Little Rock last Saturday and started da number of citizens before ambling back out of the city.

A former Faulkner County state representative, Ralph R. Harrell of Mayflower, said he and three other men Monday saw bear tracks "as big as a half-gallon bucket" as well as some fur snuggled in a barbed wire fence near Palarm, about 15 miles northwest of North Little Rock.

Conference on Laos to Adjourn

By JOHN BAUSMAN

GENEVA (AP)—The international conference on Laos agreed today to an adjournment to give participants a chance to study proposals for neutralizing the Southeast Asian kingdom.

No date was fixed for the next conference session, except for the specification that it be called before next Monday.

News of this move seemed to foreshadow a lessening of the conference pace until President Kenedy and Premier Khrushchev confer in Vienna on June 3-4.

Earlier in the day, Red China accused the United States of interfering in Laos and strongly endorsed the Soviet plan for a Communist veto over true enforcement operations.

Foreign Minister Chen Yi of Communist China told the Geneva conference on Laos his government fully supports the Soviet plan submitted last week by Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.
Chen attacked the Laotian proposals brought before the conference by Secretary of State Dean Rusk. These provide for a neutral Laos on the Austrian model and an international agency to keep the big powers from interfering in Laotian affairs.

Meanwhile, the United States threw its support behind Thailand's proposal to add Indonesia and Malaysia to the 14-nation conference.

The American delegation in a statement said enlarging the conference as Thailand proposed Tuesday would be in line with U.S. policy favoring the widest possible consultation by countries in areas where problems occur.

U.S. delegates were reported to feel that Burma, Cambodia and Thailand—Southeast Asian countries already at the conference—had shown a strong desire for a truly neutral Laos. The Americans believed Malaysia and Indonesia would add to the pressure that this pro-neutrality bloc could exert on the Communists.

The U.S. delegation was reserved toward another Thai proposal to add Indonesia and Malaya to the International Control Commission for Laos, now made up of India, Canada and Poland.
The U.S. statement said any enlargement of the commission "would have to be decided in consultation with the other members."

Globemaster Falls in State of Washington

MC CHORD AIR FORCE BASE, Wash. (AP)—A big military transport returning servicemen from maneuvers met disaster five miles from takeoff today in a flaming pileup that killed 18 men and left four injured critically.

The C124 Globemaster fell in a wooded area minutes after it lifted from a McChord runway in pre-dawn darkness, headed for Ft.
Sill, Okla., with 15 Army men and its Air Force crew of seven.

Five men got out somehow from the shattered, burning plane and were rushed to Madigan General Hospital at nearby Ft. Lewis. One died a few hours later.

One Army man and three Air Force crewmen remained at Madigan in critical condition.

"One of the first men at the scene heard a man calling for help," said Capt. Joseph Wiggins, McChord public information officer. "The survivor, in shock, was found sitting on a log near the wreckage."

The Globemaster, from Donaldson AFB, S.C., took off in foggy weather about 2:20 a.m.

"There was a flash in the sky," said a sheriff's officer. "We could not tell whether it came from an explosion in the air or after the plane hit the ground."

The $1.5 million plane apparently came down sharply. Although it landed in a heavily wooded area it cut no swath and knocked down only a few trees.

Nearly everything burned. Even metal melted. Hours after the crash the wreckage still smould-ered.

The injured were evacuated by a helicopter crew who brought their craft down in a narrow clearing between power lines and trees.

The C124 was returning men who had participated in recent Army-Air Force maneuvers, called Exercise Lava Plains, at Yakima, Wash., 150 miles east of McChord.

In addition to the 22 servicemen aboard the Globemaster carried a 16,230-pound truck, a 5,120-pound trailer, a jeep and a light trailer. It was not a heavy load for the C124 which can carry up to 200 men.

The plane came down on the edge of the Ft. Lewis military reservation, adjacent to McChord.
The bases are 10 miles southwest of Tacoma, Wash., and about 40 miles south of Seattle.

The 15 army men were from B Battery, 20th Field Artillery, 4th Army, at Ft. Sill.

Identification of the casualties was delayed until relatives were notified.

While rescuers were searching the burning wreckage, other Globemasters continued to take off from McChord on similar missions.

Two Escape at Piggott, Hunt Starts

PIGGOTT Ark. (AP)—Two 19-year-old youths who escaped from a California juvenile honor farm set off a major manhunt Tuesday after they drove a stolen station wagon through one road block near here and careened around another as a deputy sheriff fired at them with a machine gun.

They offered no resistance when officers found them about an hour later, hiding in some shrubbery outside a home here.

Clay County Sheriff Francis Underwood identified the youths as Don Buchanan of Modesto, Calif., and Cecil Sasser of San Jose, Calif.

The officer quoted them as saying they fled from a juvenile honor farm May 6 and stole a station wagon at Deming, N.M.

They were in the station wagon when officers waved them down near McDougal, about 13 miles west of here, for a routine license check. Ignoring the officers, the pair sped up and State Trooper Vic Hanshaw took up the chase at speeds of up to 100 miles an hour.

Hanshaw radioed authorities at Piggott to ask that a blockade be thrown up.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Largent used his patrol car and a gravel truck to barricade the highway.

The speeding station wagon slowed down, pulled off the highway, jumped a ditch and went around the blockade through a field.

Largent fired at the vehicle with a machine gun, but did not hit it.
 As the station wagon pulled back on the highway it sideswiped a car occupied by two Piggott youths, causing considerable damage to both cars but no injuries.

Hanshaw took to the roadside to bypass the barricade and continue the chase, which lasted for another half mile before the station wagon failed to make a sharp curve and ran into a yard just inside the city limits.

As Hanshaw pulled up, the youths fled on foot. Hanshaw pulled a shotgun from his car but it jammed before he could fire at them.

By this time authorities from several northeast Arkansas communities as well as some from southeast Missouri were on the alert.

A house-to-house search was begun.

A tip from a Piggott resident that two young men had stopped at his house to ask for water, and joked about being wanted by the police, brought officers to the scene.

They found the two hiding in some shrubbery outside the house.

 The three-day Arkansas Bankers Association will end today after unions.

Allegheny Board Holds Meeting

NEW YORK (AP)—Allegheny Corp.'s new board of directors met today in an uptown Manhattan office to set up a provisional corporate body and thresh out the question "where do we go from here."

The $6.7 billion railroad and investment holding company came into new hands in Baltimore Tuesday when the Murchison brothers

Underwood said he would hold them for California authorities.

of Dallas, Tex. won a smashing proxy fight victory.

Forces led by John D. Murchison, 39, were expected to set up an executive committee charged, among other things, with sifting possibilities for the chief executive officer's job.

[ FINA STAKES OUT ITS CLAIM TO THE ADDITIVE OF THE FUTURE. ]

PINK AIR!

The following news item appeared in the San Francisco Daily Commercial News for March 21st, 1961:

Gasoline service stations will be filling your tires with tinted or brightly colored air in the foreseeable future, according to R. G. Lund, marketing consultant.

Detecting a strong trend in the industry, Lund said, "The oil companies are already adding additives to additives in their efforts to win motorists' favor in this highly competitive field. They have added extra ingredients to everything connected with an automobile except the air that goes in the tires.

 An additive for air will definitely be the next major advance."

It will take ten years, the Portland, Oregon marketer estimates, before the research and manufacturing problems are solved. Existing facilities will have to be converted to meet the public's demand for more colorful presentation of products. "But then," he concludes,

 "stations will feature air in decorator shades of green, blue, purple and even pink."

A word to the wise if we ever saw one. Fina's not the kind of outfit that has to be told twice. Pink sounds like as good a color as any and besides it's short and catchy.

This is to serve notice we have settled on Pink Air.®

Not only that, but as of right now we are starting a crash program: the Fina Five Year Plan. If it is going to take everybody else ten years we'll do it in half of that.

So look for Pink Air at the more than 2,000 Fina stations on May 12th, 1966! Give or take a few days.

The reason we're in such a rush is, as the man says, if you want to stay on top you've got to have a little something new from time to time.

But Fina's gas, oil, and accessories are already just exactly as good as the best. We wouldn't want to add more things to them just so we could say we did. (Oh, we've got additives, all right, we just can't think of any good new names for them.)

And that's why we're so pleased to have a brand new additive of our very own: Pink Air. If you see anybody else claiming it, just let us know and we will deal with them for sure. Keep your eyes open.

Meanwhile we'd like to be able to give you a better idea of what the air in your tires will look like on P.A. Day, May 12th, 1966.
 And right now we're trying to make up a few experimental batches of Pink Air. By the time our next ad comes out we'll be able to mail you a sample if we can just figure how to keep it from leaking out of the envelope.

Now, before we go here is a picture of our Fina emblem:

... so the next time you see a Fina station you'll recognize it. And if it's on your side so you don't have to make a U-turn and there aren't six cars waiting and you need gas or something, please stop in.

DOROTHY DIX

She's Divided Between Two Loyalties

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My husband and I seek your advice. Is my duty to the two children of my first marriage or to my present husband and our dear little seven-year-old girl?

I married in 1940 and later divorced. By this marriage I had two lovely daughters, now 18 and 20. They were constantly in conflict after my second marriage and finally went to live with my mother who hates my second husband, as do they.

I love him and our little girl but I also love my two older girls. They need me and I need them. Should I divorce my husband and go to the girls or stay and raise our daughter? We have our home paid for, own a nice car and are out of debt. We have everything to offer the girls if they would come back home. My mother won't even let us see them. Is she doing right? —Unhappy Mother

Dear Unhappy Mother: Reread your marriage vows. Your husband comes first. He and your little girl need you more. Your older daughters, much as you love them, are already of age and old enough legally to be on their own. Not knowing all the circumstances I could not pass judgment on your mother. But, on the face of it, I would say she is carrying her prejudice too far. After all, you are her daughter and, regardless of her opinion of your husband, she should stand by you.

Send your problems to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Petty Tyrants."

Baptists Told Never to Shun Truths

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The outgoing president of the 9.7-million member Southern Baptist Convention said today "the day calls for a militant church a church on fire and a church with conviction."

"No church worthy of bearing the name of Jesus Christ," said the Rev. Dr. Ramsey Pollard, "will make peace terms with evil and oppression. We must have courage enough to be unpopular if our cause is right."

Dr. Pollard, 58-year-old pastor of the Bellevue Baptist Church in Memphis, Tenn., has served two consecutive one-year terms as president of the SBC. He is eligible for re-election.

He told the 104th session of the SBC in a prepared address that Baptists must never allow those who disagree with us "to muzzle great truths by crying 'bigotry, persecution and narrowness' whenever we stand for the right."

In this regard, he said, the Roman Catholic church "will never give up its efforts to dip its hands into the treasuries of all nations."

"Listen to the impassioned plea of the Roman Catholic hierarchy demanding federal funds for the support of their church related schools," Dr. Pollard said.

"Our nation faces danger from without and within. It may be that the gravest danger of the two is the danger of losing our religious freedom because of a breakdown of the wall of separation of church and state."

Dr. Pollard said President John F. Kennedy, a Roman Catholic, "has shown evidence of courage and conviction in the midst of unrelenting pressure on the part of his church."

He said all churches should pay their own way. "A militant New Testament church will provide funds for its work. It will not dishonor Christ by seeking government handouts."

Dr. Pollard called for greater

Conference

sultation with present members of the ICC both as to the advantages and the need."

The conference was expected to take up a message today from the truce commission concerning the cease-fire the commission is supposed to be watching.

There was no indication of what the message said. It was received Monday and discussed Tuesday by the conference co-chairmen, Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko of the Soviet Union and Malcolm MacDonald of Britain.

The opening of the conference May 12 was delayed 24 hours until assurances were received from the control commission that a cease-fire was in effect. Since then, Western delegations have alleged violations of the truce, while Thailand has charged there is full-scale fighting.

Eastern and neutral delegates contend that the cease-fire exists, that some minor violations are to be expected and that this is not important.

As the conference turned to procedural matters, it had before it still another plan for establishing Laos as a unified, neutral nation, this one from France.

Introduced by Ambassador Jean Chauvel, the French plan called for withdrawal of both the U.S. military advisers helping Premier Prince Boon Oum's pro-Western government and Communist North Vietnamese working with the Pathet Lao rebels. They would be replaced by French training personnel, in line with the 1954 Geneva armistice that recognized the independence of Laos, Cambodia and North and South Viet Nam.

The 1954 agreements authorized France to keep 1,500 military instructors in Laos and maintain two bases with up to 3,500 soldiers.

France, preoccupied with the war in Algeria, turned most of the training job over to the United States and kept only a tiny force on the bases.

The French plan also calls for the future Laotian government to promise not to join any military alliance and for the conference nations to agree to abstain from any direct or indirect interference in the internal affairs of Laos.

support, financial and otherwise, of Baptist schools but cautioned them "to keep close to 'The Book' (Bible)."

"Evangelism," he declared, "must be in the front line trenches of our world-wide conquest. Evangelism is not optional for a militant New Testament church. It is a 'must.'"

Small Hope for State in House Seats

By GORDON BROWN
Arkansians in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—Only slight hopes remain for passage of a bill which might help Arkansas save one of the two House seats it is due to lose next year because of population shifts. This is the measure introduced by Rep. Frank Chelf, D-Ky. Chelf is the man in Washington most optimistic about his bill's chances. But he concedes the way is rough. Others don't give it much chance.

The measure would enlarge the House from 437 members — its present size — to 469 members. By so doing, it would put Arkansas' House membership at five, rather than four. If the bill is rejected, Arkansas is virtually sure to lose two of its present six members. Chelf introduced his bill some time ago but the House leadership — meaning Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex. — didn't regard it kindly. It is now languishing in the House Judiciary committee, with virtually no chance of a hearing. With the committee route closed to him, Chelf filed a discharge petition — a device by which a bill may be taken away from a committee and brought to the House floor for debate.

The catch to this procedure, however, is that to become effective such a petition must be signed by a majority of the members — 219 in this case. At last count Chelf had around 100. His optimism was heightened by the 100th signature.

"Many members have told me that if I can get 100 signatures they will take another look at it — that if it attracts that much support they might be willing to go along," he said.

Chelf said he is aware that many members have a firm policy not to sign discharge petitions since to do so disturbs the orderly procedure of the House.

But, he said, he knows at least three members with such a policy who have broken it to sign his petition.

"They, like many other members, see that I should have a chance to be heard," he said. Chelf reported that all six Arkansas members have signed. Now, he said, he thinks he has a good chance to start rolling. Despite Chelf's optimism most House members don't believe the bill has much chance. Every year several discharge petitions are filed but almost none ever get the required number of signatures, particularly when the leadership opposes the bill.

Rayburn, although known to be sympathetic to Arkansas' problem and other states due to lose House seats, has said the House already is too large and that once the process of tinkering with the membership total is started there is no place to stop.

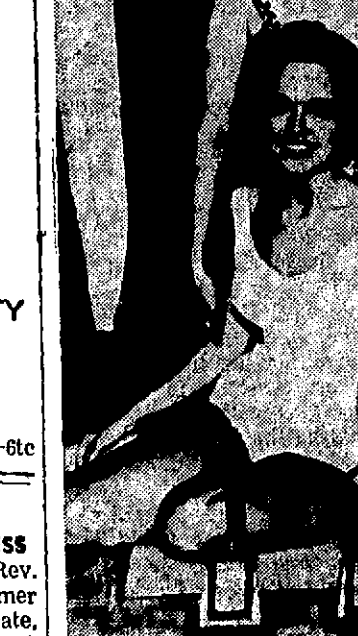

Chelf's bill would save one seat for 14 of the 16 states due to lose in the reshuffle. Iowa and West Virginia would not be aided. To help Iowa, Chelf said, the House would have to be enlarged to 488. And to aid West Virginia, a membership of 528 would be necessary.

One of the President Kennedy-style rocking chairs showed up in the office of Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., the other day. Fulbright's staff ordered it as a birthday present for him. They report he doesn't seem to use it much, although he said he does like rocking chairs.

Funeral service for Fester Taylor who died at his home on Saturday, May 20, will be held Saturday, May 27, at 2 p.m. at Mt. Pleasant CME Church. Burial will be held in Two Mile Branch Cemetery. Smith Funeral Home of Stamps, Ark. is in charge of arrangements.

Hope to Start Flood Program

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Army Engineers hope to start this summer a new federal-state program of flood hazards in Arkansas river valleys. Col. Arthur M. Jacoby, district engineer, outlined the plans Tuesday to Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who designated the Geological and Conservation Commission as the state agency to work with the engineers.

The Engineers want applications for flood studies to be submitted to the state first, then forwarded to the federal agency. Funds for the first studies are expected to be available July 1.

Jacoby said the studies would show how often the land is going to be flooded and how deep flood water would be. This, he said, would serve as a guide for development of areas which might be subject to flooding.

The state agency will prepare plans for how applications from cities, counties or other governmental units for flood studies are to be handled.

Texarkanian Elected

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—New treasurer of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers is E.D. Trice of Texarkana, Ark. He was elected without opposition Tuesday.

Trice was elected to the House floor for debate.

The catch to this procedure, however, is that to become effective such a petition must be signed by a majority of the members — 219 in this case. At last count Chelf had around 100.

Except for certain areas as shown on map above, rainfall during the period will be normal or above the nation.

Nation will be about equally divided as temperature goes for next 30 days: Normal or above in East, below in West.

TO HAVE AND TO KILL

CHAPTER XXXIII

It was a horrible, heartbreaking sound, a sort of dry, guttural gasping. Then William Darmody got up swiftly, rounded the table, placed his hands on Stockmaster's shoulders, gently pulled him back in the chair, patted and comforted him silently. Darmody's unsaid sympathy seemed to have a calming effect upon Stockmaster. The novelist took a deep, shuddering breath, fumbled a handkerchief from a jacket pocket, wiped his eyes and mumbled, "Sorry," to the table at large.

Just before dessert, when I thought the timing was right, I broke my silence. "Listen, people," I said slyly, "I've got the gun."

Eyes jerked toward me. Spoons forks, knives were suspended in mid air. Even Julius Stockmaster seemed shocked out of his semi-stupor; he turned toward me ponderously, squinting with a surprised and perplexed expression. William Darmody continued to eat for maybe a second, but he, too, noticed the expressions and attitudes of the others, lowered his fork and gazed at me, politely and curiously attentive. Cecil and Florine turned away from the buffet and watched me silently.

I grinned loosely at the tableau, feeling like a fool, held up a wavering forefinger and said, "Apologize. Little to much to drink. Sorry. Only fair to tell you. Found little gun." I patted the left side of my coat and for the benefit of William Darmody I cocked a thumb over my right forefinger and made a trigger pulling motion. I knew he got it, because his lips tightened and he glanced sharply at Stockmaster. I took a deep breath, as if trying to get myself under better control, and added, "Fingerprints, see? And bullet killing Miss Reynolds will match gun. See?" I spelled it out by patting the left side of my coat once more.

"Jim," Max said in a tight voice, "where did you find it?" "Out there," I waved a hand vaguely. "Gotta give it to Sergeant Griffith."

"Let me have it," Max said, half rising. "I'll see that Griffith gets it."

I shook my head. "Sorry, old pal."

He sat down, but he didn't like it. His eyes were hot and angry.

Mrs. Dancy said distinctly, "James, I have always regarded you as a good friend, a steady influence upon Maxwell, but I am sorry to say that your conduct today is disgraceful. If you really have a gun, I want you to give it to Maxwell for safekeeping. You are in no condition to—" "Oh, but I am," I broke in rudely. "I waited little nap, is all, little snooze." I pushed back my chair and stood up, swaying slightly. I fumbled at my wrist shirt cuff, peered at my wrist watch. "Fingerprints at two," I looked directly at Sandy. "Call me, honey."

"All right, Jim," Sandy said quietly.

I left the table, lurched for the door, turned and waved a hand limply, hoping I wasn't overdoing it. "Sorry, people. Good afternoon all." I walked sedately down the hall, paused at the stairs and gazed back. No one had followed me, not yet.

In my room on the second floor I closed the door, made certain it was not locked, unbuttoned my shirt collar and loosened my tie, slipped on the bed without removing my shoes or coat. I had set a trap. Would anyone take the bait? I stared at the ceiling in the silence and presently closed my eyes. But it was impossible to relax.

Fifteen minutes ticked by. (7. I kept track by raising my wrist watch level with my eyes. One-fifteen, 1:30. Sergeant Griffith was due at two. I lay rigid on the bed and my nerves screamed silently.

There came a soft knock on the door, a gentle rap. I did not move. I waited, holding my breath. I heard the door open with only a whisper of sound. I began to breathe deeply and regularly, practicing my deceit, feigning sudden slumber. A velvet voice said, "Mr. Bennett."

Giants Retain Lead Even in Loss to Cards

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rookie Ken Hunt and reliever Bill Henry of the Cincinnati Reds combined for a five-hit, 2-0 victory over Los Angeles Tuesday night that ended the second place Dodgers' winning streak at five games. First place San Francisco retained a .913 percentage point edge despite a 12-4 walling by St. Louis.

Milwaukee beat third place Pittsburgh 1-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Lew Burdette, and Philadelphia defeated the Chicago Cubs 2-1 in 10 innings.

In the American League, the Detroit Tigers padded their bulge to 4½ games with a 5-2 victory at Minnesota while the last-place Los Angeles Angels were whipping runner-up Cleveland 9-0. Baltimore defeated Chicago's White Sox 3-1 and Washington beat Kansas City 7-3 in the only other games.

Hunt, 22, a 6-foot-4 210 pounder who wasn't on the Reds' spring roster, has beaten the Giants, Pittsburgh and now the Dodgers in a 4-2 record and is 3-1 in the Reds' comeback. Henry the old man of the staff at 33, has four saves in the same sport.

The Dodgers, who had won eight in a row on the road, got all five hits off Hunt. The youngster struck out six, but also walked six, bringing on Henry in the eighth for a perfect, 1-3-inning mopup.

The Reds beat Los Angeles for the first time in five tries by bunching three of their seven hits for two runs in the sixth off Don Drysdale (3-3). Gus Bell's sacrifice fly and a single by Gordie Coleman brought them across after singles by Don Blasingame and Vada Pinson and a walk had loaded the bases.

Bill White was 4-for-5 and drove in five runs, two with a first-inning home run off loser Sam Jones (3-3), as the Cardinals banged 15 hits and ran up their biggest scoring total of the season. Don Toussig also hit a two-run homer in support of Ray Saadecki (2-3), who breezed in with a 12-hit job. Harvey Kuenn and Orlando Cepeda homered for San Francisco.

The Braves scored in the first inning on a triple by Frank Bowling and a single by Ed Matthews, then managed just two more hits off loser Bobby Shantz (1-1), making his first start in two seasons, and reliever Elroy Face.

Detroit Does It Again as Indians Drop

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers regained a 4½-game lead in the American League race by trimming Minnesota 5-2 Tuesday night, tying the major league record with three consecutive home runs in the ninth inning. Second place Cleveland lost 9-0 to the Los Angeles Angels as Ken McBride ended the Indians' winning streak at six games with a three-hitter.

Baltimore beat the Chicago White Sox 3-1 and Washington defeated Kansas City 7-3 in the only other games scheduled in the AL.

In the National League, San Francisco lost 12-4 at St. Louis but retained a percentage point edge over the Los Angeles Dodgers, who were beaten 2-0 at Cincinnati. Milwaukee defeated Pittsburgh 1-0 and Philadelphia beat Chicago's Cubs 2-1 in 10 innings.

Norm Cash, Steve Boros and Dick Brown combined for the home run burst by the Tigers off a pair of relievers, loser Ray Moore (3-2) and Paul Giel. Al Kaline also hit his first home run of the season, in the sixth inning, for the Tigers, who collected nine hits. Hank Aguirre (2-3) was the winner in relief.

The Twins had seven hits, one a fourth-inning single that gave Lennie Green a 20-game hitting streak, longest in the majors this year.

McBride (4-2), a 25-year-old right hander who had only a 0-2 record to show for two brief trials with the White Sox, gave up two singles and a double, walked five and struck out five against the Indians. The Angels backed him with 11 hits, three of them homers—a pair of three-run shots by Ken Hunt and Earl Averill, and a solo by Leon Wagner in the first inning off loser Jim Perry.

The Orioles also did it with home runs, one by Dick Williams in the first inning and a two-run homer by Jerry Adair in the second. Southpaw Billy Pierce (1-3) was the loser, although striking out 12 in six innings. Billy Hoelt (1-1) won it with three innings of three-hit, shutout relief by Hoyt Wilhelm, who lowered his earned run average to 1.32 for 41 innings.

A two-run triple by Willie Tasby wrapped it up for the Senators as they scored four in the eighth at Kansas City and beat Ray Herbert (3-3). Ed Hobaugh (2-2) was the winner, with relief help from Marty Kutyna when the A's came back with two runs in their eighth. Pitcher Don Larsen, converted into an outfielder by A's manager Joe Gordon after hitting a pinch homer Monday, was 0-for-4 and struck out with two on in the rally.

Eight Players Named to Hall of Fame

NEW YORK (AP) — Eight former players—five of them All-Americans—and two coaches took their places in the Football Hall of Fame today, the final survivors of several hundred nominations.

The ex-All Americans include back Glenn Davis of Army, tackle Bob Reynolds of Stanford, halfback Charley (Choo Choo) Justice of North Carolina, guard Weldon Humble of Rice and guard Bob Suffridge of Tennessee.

Don Faurot, director of athletics at Missouri and the late Charlie Caldwell, who coached at Princeton and Williams, were the coaches named.

Halfback George McAfee of Duke, fullback Claude Rooks of Oklahoma and back Pat Pazzetti of Lehigh, also were elected.

The selections were announced Tuesday by the Honors Court of the foundation after nominations and voting by the entire membership of the Hall of Fame.

Red Blaik, former Army coach, is the chairman of the 12-man Honors Court.

goin said, which players rejected but failed to report. He said the attempts were made to bribe:

Maurice W. Gilmore of the University of Colorado; Tony Jackson, former All-American of St. John's University; Sylvester Blye of the University of Seattle; Salvatore Vergopia of Niagara University; and James Robinson of Bradley University.

In addition, Hogan said Alfred Saunders of Bradley had turned down a bribe offer and failed to report it, but had accepted $200 as "spending money."

With today's disclosures, there was a total of 23 players from 15 colleges who had been approached and either rejected or accepted bribes from gamblers to fix the scores of basketball games.

Hogan emphasized that all the players he mentioned today had been granted immunity in return for testifying before the New York County grand jury, which is continuing its investigation into the basketball scandal.

The disclosures were made by Hogan in announcing the indictment of Hacken, 48, of New York, on 17 counts of bribery and one count of conspiracy. The bribery allegedly involved the corruption of basketball players.

Hacken and Aaron Wagman, a convicted football fixer from New York, were arrested last March 17 when Hogan first broke the scandal involving the two Seton Hall players. Hacken was specifically accused of bribing Gunther and Hicks.

Gibbs Gets $100,000 From Baseball

GREENADA, Miss. (AP) — Jake Gibbs, already a legendary athlete in the Frank Merriwell tradition in Mississippi, today will sign a professional baseball contract at a bonus estimated near $100,000.

The two-sport All-American won't say which team he plans to sign with.

It was speculated that the 22-year-old Gibbs would pick the New York Yankees of the American League or the Milwaukee Braves of the National League.

Major league scouts followed both the diamond and gridiron exploits of Gibbs during the last two years of his college career. Baseball scouts even watched Gibbs' football performances in every Ole Miss game since the Grenada athlete caught the eye of the baseball world.

Gibbs, who played third base for the Rebel baseball team and quarterbacked the football team, had been expected to sign a baseball pact earlier. However, Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick ruled in March that teams must wait until final examinations, or if it came later, the collegiate season's end, before signing college players.

Travs Knock Off Lookouts in Southern

By VERNON BUTLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

No Southern Association hitter headed for the hills when Detroit assigned "the Durango Kid" to Birmingham, but there may be a mass retreat any day now because the slender left-hander isn't firing blanks with that arm of his.

Johnny Seale, whose home, naturally, is Durango, Colo., raised few eyebrows last season at Durham N.C., in Class B baseball with his 12-11 mound record. But this is definitely a new year for the 22-year-old southpaw. He sported a 6-0 record today and the lowest earned-run average in the league, and his penchant for winning is a big reason why Birmingham shares the league lead with the Chattanooga Lookouts.

Birmingham promoted the first-place snarl last night with Seale's pitching and hitting playing a prominent part in the Barons' 5-3 victory over Atlanta. Little Rock knocked off Chattanooga 6-3 helping the Barons into the tie. Mobile rallied for a 6-4 verdict against Macon, and Shreveport whipped Nashville 3-0 on a five-bitter by Dale Willis.

Beatty Talks to Honor Students

"This year for the fifth time at Hope High School we are assembled for the purpose of making certain awards to deserving and outstanding students. This is the year that the Honor Graduates have been singled out to receive special recognition. Because of their outstanding academic success and success in many fields of endeavor we believe it is only fitting and proper that these eleven young people should receive special recognition." "It is highly probable that you will soon forget what is said here today, but I trust you will long remember the purpose of this special assembly. If you will permit, I should like to make a few remarks to the Honor Students as well as to the entire senior class. If I were to give a title to these few remarks it would be "Three Coins in a Fountain." These coins represent sense; we do not mean pennies. These three senses that are fundamental to success in the great fountain of life are: a sense of responsibility, a sense of honor and common sense." "These young people who have been singled out to receive these special honors have exemplified not only a sense of responsibility, but, also a sense of humor and common sense." "In May 1957 there were approximately 150 members of the 8th grade graduating class, and five of our eleven honor graduates today were honor graduates of that class: Sharon Fielding, Curtis Churchwell, Peggy Lloyd, Judy Easterling and Mary Lou Park. Other students of that class having fine records were: Barbara Caston, Sharon House, Juanita Messer and Virginia Kinsey." Lolly Prather transferred from Pennsylvania in the 9th grade, and Bill Bright from Ponca City, Oklahoma in the 10th grade.

"In the past there has been a mistaken idea that students who have maintained a high grade point average only had time to study, and many students have made the remark that they did not want to be called a "brain" but would much prefer to enjoy the many and varied extracurricular activities, in fact major in "campusology."

"These eleven honor students have not only maintained a high scholastic rank but also have been very active in all extra-curricular activities of our school. All are members of the National Honor Society, and seven were selected for Top Sixteen.

"We sincerely hope that the excellent records which these eleven outstanding students have made in Hope High School will be an inspiration to other and more students each year will strive to become an "Honor Graduate."

"There is no award which can be presented in this assembly that could in any way equal the Honor Graduate medal which is to be presented to each of you now. May it be a constant reminder of the many hours of study, determination, and perseverance that it took for this medal to become yours, and as each of you enrolls in the college of his choice may this medal be an inspiration to you as you strive for a fine college record."
